JARCHOW COMMENDS REP. JOEL KLEEFISCH

Madison... Today, following the retirement announcement by Rep. Joel Kleefisch (R-Oconomowoc), Rep. Adam Jarchow (R-Balsam Lake) has released the following statement:

“At the beginning of this session when Joel was appointed to be the Chair of the Assembly Committee on Natural Resources, I was skeptical. I was skeptical that a guy from Waukesha County would be able to relate to the struggles we face in Northern Wisconsin. I soon realized that my hesitation was unwarranted. Joel has done an exceptional job in this role and could not have been better to work with on hunting and natural resources issues.

I cannot thank Joel enough for his service to sportsmen and women across Wisconsin. He has worked tirelessly on behalf of these issues and criminal justice issues for the past 14 years. For that he deserves our gratitude. I wish my friend Joel and his family nothing but the best as he moves on to the next step in his career.”
